Protests in Iran

The Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Regional Integration and International Trade of the Republic of Mauritius is following closely the situation in the Islamic Republic of Iran following recent nationwide protests.

The Ministry recommends and strongly advises all Mauritian nationals currently in Iran to exercise vigilance and avoid potentially risky areas.

A hotline number +230 405 2576 is available to respond to emergencies to those Mauritians who find themselves in distress in Iran.

The crisis cell of the Ministry may also be contacted on the following email addresses : mfaconsular@govmu.org and mfa@govmu.org.

The Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Regional Integration and International Trade as well as all its Embassies abroad stand ready to reach out to our nationals to provide consular assistance to the best of its possibilities.

Mauritian nationals are advised to avoid non-essential travel to the Islamic Republic of Iran until further notice.
