

Job vacancy

The Indian Ocean Commission (IOC) is an intergovernmental organisation focused on regional cooperation, bringing together five member states: the Union of the Comoros, the Republics of France on behalf of Reunion Island, Madagascar, Mauritius, and Seychelles. Its mission is to strengthen friendship and solidarity among its member states and promote sustainable development through regional cooperation.

For its projects "Expédition Plastique Océan Indien" (EXPLOI) and ISLANDS, funded by "Agence Française de Développement" (AFD), the "Fonds Français pour l'Environnement Mondial" (FFEM) and ISLANDS-PNUD, the IOC is looking for:

1. One (1) communication officer and partnership coordinator for the EXPLOI project and the IOC component of the ISLANDS project.

Interested individuals can obtain the application document through the following methods:

- Download it from the IOC website www.commissionoceanindien.org - section "Opportunities"
- Contact the Human Resources Department at: rh@coi-ioc.org

Applications must be submitted directly on the IOC website at the following address: <https://www.commissionoceanindien.org/opportunités-et-carrières/> before 30th April 2025 at 04:00PM (Mauritian time).
